

Directions: To the left, write each sentence type. If there are subordinate clauses, underline them.
Blair and Jeff Burtnett played soccer, but Ryan and Garrett stayed inside to bake cookies.

Morgan was lost.

Since we had gone only a mile from camp, we could return before dark, and we would not become lost.

As I look out the window, I see no clouds, but the weather report predicted rain.

Those clouds promise rain; we should hurry before we get caught in a flash flood.

Melissa worked on her homework while the noisy children played.

Just when Richie was happy that the day had ended, he learned that he had to pick up his brother, and he had to do homework for the next day.

Alex went to school, but Noah stayed at home because he had a sore throat.

Karl picked up the mess that his brother made.

The house, which Abraham Lincoln was born in, is still standing.

Megan ran to the park while Ashley played in the leaves; then they both ate at Pizza Hut.

The pirate captain lost her treasure map, but she still found the buried treasure.

The dog lived in the backyard, but the cat, which knew he was superior, lived inside the house.

Because the soup was too cold, Amber warmed it in the microwave.

When Matt handed in his homework, he forgot to give Mrs. Spear the last page.

Though John prefers watching romantic films, he rented the latest spy thriller, and he enjoyed it very much.

Dr. Mathews did what could be done, but it simply was not enough to save his life.

Brittany forgot her Carly's birthday, so she sent her a card when she finally remembered.

Whenever the old man walked around the mansion, he wanted to hide his money, for he feared his children would steal it from him.

The team captain jumped for joy.

The fans cheered.

The team captain jumped for joy, and the fans cheered.

When we won the state championship, the team captain jumped for joy, and the fans cheered.

Paul had a test the next day, so he studied all night long.

The route can be changed, but I know several people who will not like the change.

Here is the money that I owe you, and I am happy to be free of debt.